Professional Expertise

Eric Cantor is a Senior Associate in Cushman & Wakefield's Boca Raton office, specializing in agency representation for industrial leasing throughout Broward and Palm Beach Counties. Since joining the firm in 2017, Eric has been an integral member of the South Florida Industrial Team, advising ownership groups on leasing strategy, market positioning, and execution across a wide range of industrial assets.

Eric is known for his analytical approach, strong market knowledge, and hands-on client service. He works closely with landlords to develop and implement leasing strategies that maximize occupancy, enhance asset value, and align with long-term investment objectives. His ability to navigate complex transactions and deliver tailored solutions has earned him the trust of both local and institutional owners.

A graduate of the University of Arizona, Eric was recognized as NAIOP Rookie of the Year, reflecting his early success in the market and commitment to excellence. His client-focused mindset and consistent performance continue to position him as a rising professional in South Florida's industrial real estate landscape.
